

ENGLISH	MEANING
ENGLISH: VOCABULARY UNIT 4
Vivid	FR: vif --> levendig
Deeply distressing	Deeply disturbing
Inanimate	Lifeless: something that was never alive
Inherited	You can inherit something from your parents via your DNA or you can inherit money from them. --> iets wat u wordt overgeleverd
Contemporary	Nowadays
Wretch	Ellendeling
Romanticism	A cultural flow developed throughout the industrial revolution, they were afraid of the artificial tendencies people began to have. People began manipulating nature. Romantics feared the consequences the IR would have with all its machines on nature. People began writing about the evil sides of industrialization
Gothic fiction	A subcultural flow of romantic fiction that wrote horror stories about the dark side of industrialization
Lord Byron	A romantic writer/poet that was very well respected --> he was mysterious and part of the elite society.
Mary Shelley	Author of Frankenstein, she was a young girl when she wrote this shocking story.
ENGLISH: VOCABULARY UNIT 5
To concoct	Literally: "To concoct a potion" --> to brew something Figuratively: to create
Aeon	Very long period of time
To crop up	To appear
Part of speech	Sort of word
Abbreviation	Afkorting --> A+ is an abbreviation for Atheneum Plus
Acronym	Letterwoord (yolo, aub, svp)
Sophisticated --> That's a very sophisticated device	Verfijnd
Ubiquitous	Generally accepted, commonly used
To connect	Add on
To start	Switch on
To encourage	Cheer on, carry on
To dress	Add on, slip on
To continue	Keep on, go on
To change and develop	Move on
Phrasal verb	Verb with a preposition that has a different meaning than the verb without preposition

