

- 1) adjectives and adverbs: dreary night in November, rain fell dismally
--> Cold, scary atmosphere
- 2) Dr. Frankenstein's physical state: Candle nearly burnt out ...
--> The weather is bad, it reflects the bad mental state of Dr. Frankenstein
- 3) The light represents the light of science improving our daily lives going out, Frankenstein's experiment was bad, using science to play God, science got too much power.
- 4) The lifeless thing, the creature, the terrible wretch, the being ...
--> Pronouns: his --> the: Frankenstein doesn't treat the creature as a human being.
- 5) Yellow skin, black hair, pearly white teeth, watery eyes, shriveled complexion, straight black lips
--> Impression of a monster: a very bad impression
- 6) His eyes were fixed on me. His jaws opened, and he muttered some inarticulate sounds, while a grin wrinkled his cheeks. He might have spoken, but I did not hear; one hand was stretched out, as if to keep me there.
--> Frankenstein is the creator's child and just wants acceptance, but he doesn't get any, so he becomes a monster.
- 7) A child expects the unconditional love and acceptance from his parents, if the parents neglect the child he/she might have some issues later on in life and become bad human beings. The same counts for Frankenstein, his creator treats him as a monster so he becomes a monster.